Display in the App

If you chose the delivery option: Mobile App, there will be an activation link at the end of the activation process with which you can display the order in your app.

Each mobile Vienna City Card has a card-number. You receive this card-number in the activation email. If you enter this card-number in your app you can at any time transfer the displayed ticket to other devices.

If you've added more than one ticket to your phone, you'll need to remove the tickets before you can add them to another device. To do this, mark an active ticket in your app and choose "Remove Card" at the top of the screen. Then each ticket can be transferred to another device of your choice.
